

How to track down quality PC supplies and accessories:

Hunting for a PC was a walk in the park compared to the jungle of bargain supply traps, unrecognizable media brands and useless accessory pitfalls that await you.

But stiff upper lip, there is hope.

Ask your authorized dealer to take you on a Memorexpedition.

Your guide will show you Memorex:

- Microdisks, flexible disks, data cartridges and cassettes
- Disk file boxes, label kits and disk mailers

- Copyholders, glare filters, and printer support stands
- PC diagnostic, cleaning and care systems
- Smooth Edge™ paper, labels and envelopes
- Power conditioning equipment and
- A vast array of printer ribbons.

And there's no need to pack a lunch.

It's a one stop expedition full of values. All carrying the quality reputation of a single, internationally known and respected brand name..
